

AMPLIFY ENERGY CORP.
CHARTER OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE
OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
(Adopted as of June 13, 2017)

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Amplify Energy Corp. (the “Company”) has established the Compensation Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) with authority, responsibility and specific duties as described in this Compensation Committee Charter (the “Charter”).

I. Purposes

The purposes of the Committee are to:

- A. Assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities of risks relating to the compensation of the Company’s executive officers and directors, as well as the Company’s employee compensation and benefit plans, policies and programs by:
  - 1. Reviewing, evaluating and approving the agreements, plans, policies and programs of the Company to compensate the Company’s executive officers and directors;
  - 2. Overseeing the Company’s employee benefit plans, policies and programs to compensate the Company’s non-executive employees, as well as executive officers; and
  - 3. Fulfilling the Board’s responsibilities relating to the compensation of the Company’s executive officers and directors;
- B. Review and discuss with the Company’s management the Company’s disclosures to be included under “Compensation Discussion and Analysis” (“CD&A”) in the Company’s proxy statement for its annual meeting of shareholders (“Proxy Statement”) or the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K (“Annual Report”), as applicable, and determine whether to recommend to the Board that the CD&A disclosures be included in the Proxy Statement or Annual Report, as applicable, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations;
- C. Annually prepare a Compensation Committee Report as required by Item 407(e)(5) of Regulation S-K for inclusion in the Proxy Statement or Annual Report, as applicable, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations; and
- D. Perform such other functions as the Board may assign to the Committee from time to time.

II. Membership

The Committee shall consist of not less than three members of the Board. Each member of the Committee shall be an “independent director” as defined by the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) and the NASDAQ Stock Market (“NASDAQ”). In addition, at least two members of the Committee shall be “Non-Employee Directors” for the purposes of Rule 16b-3 (“Rule 16b-3”) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and “outside directors” for the purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”). Notwithstanding the foregoing membership requirements, no action of the Committee shall be invalid by reason of any such requirement not being met at the time such action is taken.

The members of the Committee and its chairman shall be selected annually by the Board and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any vacancy on the Committee shall be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed by, the Board. If a chairman is not designated by the Board or is not present at a meeting, the Committee may designate a chairman by majority vote of the Committee members then in office.

III. Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee is delegated all authority of the Board as may be required or advisable to fulfill the purposes of the Committee. Without limiting the generality of the preceding statements, the Committee shall have authority, and is entrusted with the responsibility, to take the following actions:

A. Authority

The Committee shall have the authority to:

1. Conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within the scope of the responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisors engaged by the Committee.
2. Retain and determine funding for independent legal counsel, as well as other experts and advisors, including the authority to retain, approve the fees payable to, amend the engagement with, and terminate any compensation consultant to be used in the evaluation of director, Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) and non-CEO compensation, as it deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company’s regular outside legal counsel or other experts and advisors to the Company. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of (a) compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee; and (b) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
3. Delegate to its chairman, any one of its members or any subcommittee it may form, the responsibility and authority for any particular matter, as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances. The Committee may elect to delegate the approval of award grants and other transactions and responsibilities regarding the administration of compensatory programs to a subcommittee consisting solely of members of the Committee who are (a) “Non-Employee Directors” for the purposes of Rule 16b-3 and/or (b) “outside directors” for the purposes of Section 162(m) of the Code. However, subcommittees shall not have the authority to engage independent legal counsel and other experts and advisors unless expressly granted such authority by the Committee. Each subcommittee shall keep minutes and regularly report to the Committee.

B. Responsibilities

The Committee shall have the following responsibilities:

Executive Compensation

1. The Committee shall exercise oversight of all matters relating to, and have overall responsibility for establishing, implementing and monitoring, compensation of the Company’s executive officers.
2. On an annual basis, the Committee shall:
  - a. Review, modify (if necessary) and approve the Company’s peer companies and data sources for purposes of evaluating the Company’s compensation competitiveness and establishing the appropriate competitive positioning of the levels and mix of compensation elements;
  - b. Review, modify (if necessary) and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company’s CEO and the Company’s other executive officers;
  - c. Review, modify (if necessary) and approve the Company’s executive compensation program in light of the Company’s goals and objectives relative to executive compensation;
  - d. Evaluate the performance of the Company’s CEO in light of the Company’s executive compensation goals and objectives, and set the compensation of the CEO based on this evaluation, including the annual base salary levels; annual cash incentive awards; long-term incentive awards; employment agreements; severance arrangements and change- in-control agreements and provisions; and any special or supplemental benefit. In determining the long-term incentive component (if any) of such compensation, the Committee should consider the Company’s performance and relative shareholder return, the value of similar awards to executive officers at comparable companies and the awards given to the CEO historically; and

- e. In consultation with the CEO as the Committee deems fit, evaluate the performance of the Company's executive officers (other than the CEO) in light of the Company's executive compensation goals and objectives, and set the compensation of the Company's executive officers based on this evaluation, including the annual base salary levels; annual cash incentive awards; long-term incentive awards; employment agreements; severance arrangements and change-in-control agreements and provisions; and any special or supplemental benefit. In determining the long-term incentive component (if any) of such compensation, the Committee should consider the Company's performance and relative shareholder return, the value of similar awards to executive officers at comparable companies and the awards given to the executive officers historically.
3. The Committee shall review and discuss with the Company's management the Company's disclosures under CD&A to be included in the Proxy Statement or Annual Report, as applicable, and, based on that review, determine whether to recommend to the Board that the CD&A be included in the Proxy Statement or Annual Report, as applicable, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.
4. The Committee shall annually prepare a Compensation Committee Report as required by Item 407(e)(5) of Regulation S-K for inclusion in the Proxy Statement or Annual Report, as applicable, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.
5. The Committee will review and recommend to the Board how frequently the Company should permit shareholders to have an advisory vote on executive compensation ("say-on-pay"), once required. This review should take into account the historical results of shareholder advisory votes on the frequency of say-on-pay resolutions at the Company.
6. Following each shareholder meeting at which say-on-pay resolutions are proposed for a shareholder advisory vote, the Committee will review the results of the advisory vote, and consider whether to make any adjustments to the Company's executive compensation policies and practices.
7. The Committee will oversee management's engagement with stockholders and proxy advisory firms on executive compensation matters.

8. Once required, the Committee will prepare and recommend to the Board for adoption a clawback policy that complies with applicable rules and regulations, including the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the listing standards of the NYSE and NASDAQ.

Incentive and Equity Compensation Plans

9. On an annual basis, the Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the Company's incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans that are subject to Board approval.
10. The Committee shall ensure that shareholders are given the opportunity to vote on equity-compensation plans, as may be required by law, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws (as amended from time to time), the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and the listing standards of the NYSE and NASDAQ.
11. On an annual basis, the Committee shall review, modify (if necessary) and approve as the Committee deems appropriate, the CEO's recommendation regarding long-term incentive awards for the Company's non-executive officer employees.

Director Compensation

12. The Committee shall exercise oversight of all matters relating to, and have overall responsibility for establishing, implementing and monitoring, compensation of the Company's directors.
13. On an annual basis, the Committee shall review, modify (if necessary) and approve the form and amount of director compensation. The Committee will consider that a director's independence may be jeopardized if (a) his or her compensation and perquisites exceed customary levels, (b) the Company makes substantial charitable contributions to organizations with which the director is affiliated or (c) the Company enters into consulting contracts with (or provides other indirect forms of compensation to) the director or an organization with which the director is affiliated. Directors who are employees of the Company shall not receive any additional compensation for service on the Board.

Other Powers and Responsibilities

14. The Committee shall review and approve, or review and recommend to the Board for its approval, any transaction in equity securities of the Company, or derivatives of those equity securities, between the Company and any officer or director of the Company who is subject to the reporting and short-swing liability provisions of Section 16 of the Exchange Act.

15. The Committee shall review, as it deems necessary, appropriate matters related to the Company's compliance with applicable laws and regulations affecting employee and director compensation and benefits, including, but not limited to, Rule 16b-3, Section 162(m) of the Code and Section 13(k) of the Exchange Act.
16. If the Committee engages independent legal counsel, a compensation consultant or other advisors, then the Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of such counsel, consultant or advisor. Prior to any such engagement, the Committee will analyze the relationships such counsel, consultants or advisors have with members of the Committee as well as management and the Company as a whole. This analysis will include the specific factors identified by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the NYSE and NASDAQ that affect the independence of compensation advisors.

IV. Procedures

- A. Meetings. The Committee shall meet at the call of its chairman, two or more members of the Committee or the Chairman of the Board. The Committee shall meet as frequently as circumstances dictate. Meetings of the Committee may be in person, by conference call or by unanimous written consent, in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. Meetings of the Committee shall be held at such time and place, and upon such notice, as its chairman may from time to time determine. The Committee shall keep such records of its meetings as it deems appropriate.

Meetings may, at the discretion of the Committee, include other directors, members of the Company's management, independent advisors and consultants or any other persons whose presence the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. Those in attendance may observe meetings of the Committee, but shall not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless invited to do so by the Committee, and in any event shall not be entitled to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, any director that is not a member of the Committee.

- B. Quorum and Approval. A majority of the Committee's members shall constitute a quorum. The Committee shall act on the affirmative vote of a majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting.

- C. Rules. The Committee may determine additional rules and procedures, including designation of a chair pro tempore in the absence of its chairman and designation of a secretary of the Committee at any meeting thereof.
- D. Reports. The Committee shall maintain minutes of its meetings and make regular oral or written reports to the Board, directly or through its chairman, of its actions and any recommendations to the Board.
- E. Review of Charter. On an annual basis, the Committee shall review the need for changes in this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- F. Performance Review. On an annual basis, the Committee shall review and evaluate its own performance and shall submit itself to a review and evaluation by the Board.
- G. Fees; Reimbursement of Expenses. Each member of the Committee as well as the chairman shall be paid the fee set by the Board for his or her services as a member, or chairman, as the case may be, of the Committee. Subject to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and other policies, Committee members, including the chairman, will be reimbursed by the Company for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with their duties as Committee members or as chairman.

V. Posting Requirement

The Company shall make this Charter available on or through the Company's website as required by applicable rules and regulations. In addition, the Company shall disclose in its Proxy Statement or in its Annual Report, as applicable, that a copy of this Charter is available on the Company's website and provide the website address.

* * *

While the Committee members have the duties and responsibilities set forth in this Charter, nothing contained in this Charter is intended to create, or should be construed as creating, any responsibility or liability of the Committee members, except to the extent otherwise provided under applicable federal or state law. Further, nothing in this Charter is intended to preclude or impair the protection provided in Section 141(e) of the Delaware General Corporation Law for good faith reliance by Committee members on reports or other information provided by others.
